Perruso Receives Award for Community Service

Wilson Councilman Honored with A.C. Scales Award

Harrisburg, PA – David Perruso, the mayor of Wilson Borough in Northampton County, was awarded the A.C. Scales Award for outstanding service to the community at the Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs (PSAB) annual conference held in Hershey.

The A.C. Scales Award recognizes service to PSAB. The purpose of the award is to stimulate such service and to recognize those who have performed it.

Perruso has served as mayor for 12 years and previously served on borough council. He is a member of the PSAB Board of Directors and the Mid-Eastern County Boroughs Association.

“David is an exceptional leader who is deserving of this award,” said Chris Cap, executive vice president of PSAB. “Wilson Borough and to PSAB have both benefitted from his experience in dealing with the challenges local governments face including public safety and finances.”

Nominations were judged on the impact of the accomplishments on PSAB, the length of service of the nominee, the relative importance of the accomplishments and the extent of the gain in effectiveness to PSAB through the accomplishment.

About PSAB

The Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs (PSAB) is a statewide, non-partisan, non-profit organization dedicated to serving 958 borough governments. Since 1911, PSAB has represented the interests of boroughs and helped to shape the laws that laid their foundation. The Association improves and assists local governments through legislative advocacy, research, education and other services. With more than 2.6 million Pennsylvanians residing in borough communities, our members strive to deliver quality leadership and service to citizens across the Commonwealth.
