

2012 Borough News Features Index

January

Containment Strategies

Unemployment compensation costs have risen; however, there are strategies that may help reduce costs - Nicole Laws - Pg. 24

The Government Lawyer's Conundrum

Considerations about the people and groups to whom a lawyer may be responsible - Jeffrey D. Lester - Pg. 30

When Googling Can Go Wrong

A social media hiring legal update - Michael McAuliffe Miller - Pg. 20

February

Johnsonburg Builds for the Future

Wastewater infrastructure modernized and expanded - Dan Guss and Denny Lingenfelter - Pg. 24

Now What?

When serving your borough, there are a few things to keep in mind to help you be a better local leader - PSAB Staff - Pg. 20

Planning Ahead

Improving water and wastewater services by planning forward - Sandra Fallon - Pg. 28

March

Action Oriented

A parliamentary procedure primer for Boroughs - Christine Dixon - Pg. 24

Developing a Safety Net

Establishing a committee to address safety issues and the safety of employees - Chris Palmisano - Pg. 30

Working Across Generations

Leadership and management in the new millennium - Timothea Kirchner - Pg. 20

April

For Rent

The changing residential face of the Pennsylvania borough and regulatory response
- Susan Smith, Esq. - Pg. 32

Infrastructure Emergency

America's crumbling infrastructure will challenge emergency managers for decades
- Adam Stone - Pg. 26

The Long Bumpy Road Ahead

Considerations related to transportation infrastructure funding in Pennsylvania -
Courtney Accurti - Pg. 22

May

A Cost-Effective Alternative

Planning with Google Earth - Rick Tralies - Pg. 30

A River Unites It

Greenway partnership links health of Pennsylvania towns to that of Susquehanna -
Sara Kaplaniak - Pg. 26

Valuable Investments

The Keystone Fund revitalizes boroughs - Nicole Faraguna - Pg. 22

June

Highlighting Change

With the adoption of a modernized and recodified Borough Code comes change and clarification - Courtney Accurti - Pg. 22

It's a Wonderful Life

In Pennsylvania Boroughs - Pg. 30

Weathering the Storm

Pennsylvania's Main Streets and Elm Streets moving forward - Bill Fontana - Pg. 26

July

Conservation in the Commonwealth

Conservation districts are your borough's partner in water and soil preservation -
Wendy Nickerson - Pg. 30

How does your (urban) garden grow?

Incorporating gardens to increase livability and reduce stormwater - Christopher J.
Brown and Michael R. Smith - Pg. 22

Regulating Quality

Permitting stormwater discharge from municipal separate storm sewer systems in Pennsylvania - Jean M. Mosites - Pg. 26

August

Breaking the Cycle

Reducing reliance on federal help after disasters - Amy Crabill - Pg. 30

Road Map to the Future

Capital improvements planning for small water systems - Jean Holloway - Pg. 22

The Gen X Factor

Suburban choices are plentiful for the smallest generation - Brad Broberg - Pg. 26

September

Communicating Quality

Making regional drinking water collaboration work - Ellen Kiley and Julie Kollar - Pg. 22

Member Driven

PSAB is constantly working to ease the local governing process - Chris Cap - Pg. 30

Raising the Bar

Community-based program prepares Californians for a disaster - Justine Brown - Pg 26

October

A Part of the Platform

Advocacy for boroughs' built environment is a key element of PSAB's legislative agenda - Ed Troxell - Pg. 22

PSAB's Governing Board

Get to know your Association's elected leadership and Board representative appointed by County Boroughs Associations - Pg 32

Up to the Challenge

A case study of one borough's fight to enforce common sense regulation for residential rental properties - Ron Grutza - Pg. 26

November

All Along the Countryside

The Sewickley Hunt takes riders through scenic Allegheny County - Wendy Nickerson - Pg. 24

Not So Personal Anymore

The Right to Know Law and private email communications - Michael J. Savona and Barbara R. Merlie - Pg. 32

Planting an Intergovernmental Reform Garden

A modest proposal for public interest groups and their friends - Bill Dodge - Pg. 28

December

Gauging the Impact

Task force examines impacts of mandates on municipalities - Ed Knittel - Pg. 28

Middle-Income Measurement

Reviewing data for insights about the current business cycle and middle-income jobs in Pennsylvania - Lindsay McPhail, Theodore Fuller and Theodore Alter- Pg. 24

Wasteland Revival

Critical in the repositioning of our post industrial municipalities, brownfield redevelopments can transform a blemish on the map into a thriving hub of activity particularly if designers have a say in the process - Aaron Seward - Pg. 32